

WHEREAS, The Mayors of South Dakota's 309 Cities and Towns serve the people in an outstanding and dedicated manner; and,

WHEREAS, These public servants have very limited resources with which to provide the additional and improved services which the people of South Dakota demand and deserve; and,

WHEREAS, The future of South Dakota depends upon the continued efficient and effective administration of local government:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 14, 1973, as and urge all South Dakotans to join in commending the elected officials of our cities and towns for their unselfish and dedicated service.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 7th day of February, in the Year Of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Three.
